Certificate of Appreciation

This award is presented to individuals or organizations to formally acknowledge a service or contribution.

Michael Batten
103 Thunderbird, North Vancouver

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Michael Batten for his dedicated service to 103 Thunderbird Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Michael joined the Squadron Sponsoring Committee in 2017. Prior to that he occasionally helped at the squadron on an unofficial basis. His first elected position was Chairperson. He has demonstrated exceptional dedication and exemplary service to the organization. He continued as chairperson after his son aged out because of his passion for the program and wanted to ensure a successful rebuild post pandemic. Michael's enthusiasm and commitment are evidence of the joy he clearly gets from being part of this organization. He sets an example for the other volunteers and parents as a mentor and leader.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Michael Batten.

Saeedeh Bouzari
759 Falcon, North Burnaby

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Saeedeh Bouzari for her dedicated service to 759 Falcon Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Saeedeh joined the 759 Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) in 2019. The following year she was elected as a Director and appointed as Member at Large.

She held the Fundraising Coordinator and Vice-Chairperson positions until stepping down in 2023. In 2024, Saeedeh joined the BCPC and will be a League Representative. She has been a committed and passionate volunteer for 759 Falcon SSC.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Saeedeh Bouzari.

Charlene Breen
583 Coronation, Maple Ridge

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Charlene Breen for her dedicated service to 583 Coronation Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Charlene joined the 583 Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) in 2022. Shortly after she became a Director and Chairperson. She worked very hard to get the SSC running as she had much to learn. Although she has had to step back, she continues to support the new Chairperson. Charlene is a dedicated and committed volunteer for 583 Coronation SSC.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Charlene Breen.

Heather Carey
205 Collishaw, Nanaimo

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Heather Carey for her dedicated service to 205 Collishaw Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Heather has been a valuable member of the 205 Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) for five years. She works quietly in the background supporting and helping with whatever needs to be done. She managed the canteen for the cadets which included ordering, stocking and manning. She also helped design and order squadron t-shirts, hats and swag. As well, Heather managed the Country Grocer receipt program. She is reliable, organized and an asset to the SSC and squadron.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Heather Carey.

Roland Clifford
746 Lightning Hawk, Langley

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Roland Clifford for his dedicated service to 746 Lightning Hawk Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Roland joined the 746 Squadron Sponsoring Committee in 2023 and was elected as a Director. He volunteered in an advisory role for the yearbook and Annual Ceremonial Review program. He made connections with the photography club and in other communication areas. In addition, when the need for traffic control was identified, Roland recruited a team of volunteers with weekly schedules. He purchased the safety cones and illumination wands and changed the way the cadets were dropped-off and picked-up. 746 now has a safe, well-organized and structured pick-up and drop-off routine at the squadron.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Roland Clifford.

Darcy Dean
Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Darcy Dean for his dedicated service to 257 Parallel Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Darcy has been involved with the 257 Parallel Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) since November 2016. Early on in his role with the SSC, Darcy developed a Computerized Aircraft Simulation Centre (CASC) program for the squadron, and he continues to act as their facilitator for that program.

In February 2019, Darcy joined the BC Provincial Committee and became the League Representative for the 257 SSC. In addition to his LR duties Darcy has served on the BCPC Training and Education Committee, providing input to assist in the development of training resources for SSC's.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Darcy Dean.

Randy Dollard
767 Dearman, Surrey

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Randy Dollard for his dedicated service to 767 Dearman Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Randy joined the Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) in 2019 and held the positions of Secretary and Vice-Chairperson. Randy stepped up to the Chairperson at a time of crisis for the SSC. The previous Chairperson had left, and the financials were in disarray. Under Randy's leadership, the SSC has grown, become stable and support one of the largest cadet units in Canada. He has expanded his personal skill sets to meet the needs of the position.

Randy has agreed to become a BCPC League representative in the next training year.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Randy Dollard.

Michael Joined the 907 Squadron Sponsoring Committee in 2022. He became a Director and was appointed Secretary. He did a great job in this role. He was also instrumental in getting the Effective Speaking program running at the squadron. He currently holds the position of Vice-Chairperson. Michael is a passionate and committed volunteer for 907 Black Knights Squadron.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Michael Dunn.

Molly Ehmann
902 Nighthawk, Summerland

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Molly Ehmann for her dedicated service to 902 Nighthawk Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

In a time of significant transition, Molly stepped into the Chairperson position after the previous board stepped down. Her willingness to assume this role under such a challenging circumstance is a testament to her commitment and determination. She handles difficult situations with the utmost professionalism and grace ensuring the integrity and harmony of the Squadron Sponsoring Committee are maintained. Due to a shortage of volunteers, Molly also took on the responsibilities of Treasurer. Her ability to handle both roles efficiently highlights her dedication and multifaceted skill set. Her efforts continue to leave a lasting positive impact on the 902 Nighthawk Squadron Sponsoring Committee.

Yi Gao
808 Coquitlam, Coquitlam

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Yi Gao for her dedicated service to 808 Coquitlam Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Yi joined the 808 Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) in 2019 as the Special Events Director. She handled the squadron events such as arranging catering and shadow boxes for the Aging out events, award dinners and the Annual Ceremonial Review. The SSC is grateful to Yi for her hard work and attention to details.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Yi Gao.

746 Lightning Hawk, Langley

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Jessica Hoszouski for her dedicated service to 746 Lightning Hawk Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Jessica joined the 746 Squadron Sponsoring Committee in 2023 as Secretary and began to expand the role by including social media. She began using WhatsApp for communications by creating sub-committees for the various committees as well as creating an Instagram page. She took over the weekly newsletter emails to the parents. She is always available to answer questions from the parents. She volunteers for jobs such as directing traffic during parade nights and liaising with BCPC.

Jenefer Hudson
893 Beaufort, Qualicum Beach

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Jenefer Hudson for her dedicated service to 893 Beaufort Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Jenefer stepped in to the Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) in 2023 to help the SSC meet its commitments. The responsibilities were numerous and sometimes overwhelming for someone with little knowledge of the programs, financial requirements, and accountabilities for those finances. Jenefer reached out to the BCPC League for guidance contacting Michele Claveau, Al Walsh and William Dornan. Her commitment led to a very successful year for the cadets at 893. Her commitment was exemplary.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Jenefer Hudson.

He works closely with the Chairperson, and handles the LSA and the BC Gaming Grant applications. He is a dedicated and committed volunteer and a huge asset to 637 Arrow SSC.

Kevin Larkin
746 Lightning Hawk, Langley

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Kevin Larkin for his dedicated service to 746 Lightning Hawk Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Kevin joined the Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) in 2022. Kevin is currently the Chairperson and is a true professional. He is an example to all. He has the capacity to control a group of very engaged people on his SSC that are bursting with new, radical and interesting opinions of the direction of the SSC. He has been able to navigate the strong opinions into a streamlined and effective team environment at 746. His performance as Chairperson is commended.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Kevin Larkin.

Jennifer Medwenitsch
147 Airwolf, Chilliwack

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Jennifer Medwenitsch for her dedicated service to 147 Airwolf Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Jennifer joined the 147 Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) in 2019. She started as a Director-at-large and moved to the Chairperson position in 2020. Jennifer served on the executive during the pandemic and learned her role on her own. She ensured the other directors were trained in their roles. She showcases the many contributions that the squadron has made in the community. Her outstanding service and dedication has had an impact on the SSC, Officers and Cadets of 147.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Jennifer Medwenitsch.

Jasbir Mehta
746 Lightning Hawk, Langley

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Jasbir Mehta for his dedicated service to 746 Lightning Hawk Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron.

Jas joined 746 Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) in 2022 as Treasurer. He executed his Treasurer roll efficaciously and instituted new local policy for approving expenses. He also streamlined the payment methods and digital banking. As a result, the squadron expenses flowed more efficiently with more rigorous safeguards in place. His reports were exact, succinct and communicated in a way that kept all apprised of the financial situation. The SSC appreciate all that Jas has done and are pleased with how well they have benefited from his approach to his roll.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Jasbir Mehta.

She held multiple positions including Supply, Training, Administration and Commanding Officer. She joined the 205 Squadron Support Committee (SSC) four years ago with two cadets in the Air element and one in the Sea element. She accepted the position of Secretary ensuring all administration was done correctly. She helps in fund-raising, Annual Ceremonial Reviews and anything that needs to be done. The SSC thank Amy for her amazing career and continued support of 205 Collishaw.

William Albert (Al) Walsh
Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes William Albert Walsh for providing exemplary service in support of the Air Cadet Program.

William Albert Walsh (Capt Ret) began his career with the RCAF in 1954. He had a heroic career whilst in the military, being recognized not only for his prowess in the field of Aircraft Maintenance but for saving lives of people in peril aboard aircraft. After his career with the RCAF, Albert went on to acquire 2500 hours with his private licence. He was recruited to become a glider pilot and a tow plane pilot with the CIC. He designed and built a device that allowed for the safe release of gliders from a tow plane. After leaving the CIC, he joined the BC Provincial Committee as Wing Chair for Vancouver Island. Currently he is a BCPC League Representative. Albert has given many years of service to Canada and the Royal Canadian Air Cadet Program. During 2023-2024, he mentored the 893 Squadron Sponsoring Committee with diligence which resulted in a very successful year.

Glen Watson

Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Glen Watson for his dedicated service to the British Columbia Provincial Committee.

Glen began his association with the Air Cadet program when he joined 111 Pegasus as a cadet in 1974. When he aged out of cadets, he joined the Communication Reserve of the Canadian Forces. In 2000 while serving as the DCO of the 15 Field Artillery Regiment, Glen became involved in cadets when he assisted in establishing an Air Cadet Squadron in Squamish. He became 835 Griffon Squadron's first Commanding Officer. In 2002, he turned over command of 835 Squadron and returned to Officer Commanding 744 Communication Squadron. Glen retired from the Military in 2019 after 42 years of service.

Glen was invited to join the BC Provincial Committee in 2019 and was elected onto the Board of Directors in 2022. He currently serves as the BCPC President. Through his passion and commitment for the program he has created a cohesive and successful team. Glen's leadership, compassion and example promote a positive atmosphere for members to communicate effectively and work collaboratively toward shared goals for the program.

With sincere gratitude, the Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee, takes pleasure in presenting this Certificate of Appreciation to Glen Watson.

In 2007, the family moved to Cranbrook where they joined the Cranbrook flight of 266 Kimberley squadron. She worked with a team to transition the Cranbrook flight to become 552 Key City Squadron. She recruited Cadets and SSC members. 2007-2009, Lori was the Secretary and Treasurer of the SSC. In 2009, 552 Key City RCACS obtained their charter. The following year, Lori-Lee joined the CIC where she held several positions until 2024. From 2015 – 2017, she was also a volunteer Instructor for 904 Kootenai in Creston. She was Commanding officer twice at 552. Lori-Lee has invested a large portion of her life in the Air Cadet program. Her strong, consistent leadership has helped to make the program a safe and welcoming environment.

The Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee presents Captain Lori-Lee Bott with the Award to Military Personnel in recognition of exceptional support of the Air Cadet program.

Capt Robert Bott
552 Key City, Cranbrook

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee recognizes Captain Robert Bott for providing exemplary service in support of the Air Cadet program.

Robert served in the Royal Canadian Navy for 22 years. In 2007, the family moved to Cranbrook where they joined the Cranbrook flight of 266 Kimberley squadron. He worked with a team to transition the Cranbrook flight to become 552 Key City Squadron. He recruited Cadets and SSC members. Robert was appointed to the position of Treasurer. In 2009, 552 Key City RCACS obtained their charter. The same month, he was sworn in as an officer. He was Commanding officer from 2009-2015.

Robert served simultaneously as CO of 904 Kootenai RCACS, Creston and officer at 522 from 2015-2017. In a time when many youth are struggling with mental health, Robert and his fellow officers have made the Air Cadet program a safe and welcoming place for Cadets to reach their full potential.

The Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee presents Captain Robert Bott with the Award to Military Personnel in recognition of exceptional support of the Air Cadet program.

Capt Courtnee Morgan
205 Collishaw, Nanaimo

The Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee recognizes Captain Cortnee Morgan for providing exemplary service in support of the Air Cadet program.

Cortnee started as a 205 Collishaw Air Cadet in the 1990s. When she aged out, she joined the unit as a CIC officer. As an officer, she held all positions including Commanding Officer. Cortnee was involved in the regional biathlon program, summer training centres and RCSU J8 (finances). Her impact to cadets, officers and parents was inspiring. She leads from experience and kindness to ensure all cadets are welcomed and supported. Her ability to understand diverse youth was a much-appreciated strength.

Honourary Life Member

Hendrikus (Rick) Meijer Air Cadet League of Canada, BC Provincial Committee

The Air Cadet League of Canada, British Columbia Provincial Committee is honoured to recognize the enormous impact Rick Meijer has made over the past 30 years to the delivery of the Air Cadet Program in British Columbia.

Rick joined the 747 Unicorn Squadron Sponsoring Committee, Terrace in 1993. He was part of the executive for many years in positions of Building, Fund raising, Vice-chairperson and eventually Chairperson. He joined the BCPC as a League Representative for 747 in 1993.

In 2008, he became the Northern Wing Chairperson and took on the further responsibilities of being League Representative for 899 Vanderhoof, 396 City of Prince George and 768 Jet Ranger. Rick's deep passion for Northern BC and the aim of the betterment of the northern squadrons resulted in constant travel between Dawson Creek, Chetwynd, Mackenzie, Prince George, Quesnel, Vanderhoof, and Terrace.

We are forever grateful for Rick's support to the Northern Wing of British Columbia. Further, we are especially indebted to him for his leadership, mentorship and dedication to the Air Cadet League of Canada and the BC Provincial Committee as a Director.

For his meritorious service to the Air Cadet Program, the BCPC is honoured to appoint Rick Meijer an Honourary Lifetime Member of the BCPC.
